Mission, Solutions, & Customers

NAWCTSD Is the principal Navy center for research, development, test & evaluation, acquisition & product support of training systems.

Training Systems Training Content

Training Services Intellectual Services

Percentages reflect our FY07 Work Year Close-out

NAWCTSD New Initiatives

Engineering:

- Working with industry to develop a standard Work Breakdown Schedule (WBS) for cost estimates, proposals, and evaluations.
- Pursuing AIRSpeed initiative to improve acceptance testing process.
- Total Force Readiness-standard work/skills package (PMA-205 pilot program).

Logistics:

- Re-instituting targeted & timely project reviews to provide greater insight into our work efforts.

NAWCTSD New Initiatives

Sustainment :

- Correct data key to funding for spares & sustainment. Considered early & adequately funded.

- Cost effective migration from "trainer unique equipment" toward COTS/NDI, PC-based simulations. Re-thinking typical COMS (contractor operations and maintenance services) support of fielded systems.

  - Continue to rely on the In-Service Engineering Office (ISEO) as an inherently governmental part of this equation; however, use of COTS/NDI will require a migration of skill sets.

Industry Support

As trainers use more COTS based hardware & software, industry can help:

- Keep us up to date on commercial marketplace.
- Provide input on approaches to keep our training systems current.
- Provide ideas for how best to support COTS products.
- Help determine the impact of transitioning from one COTS product to another.
